

I would like to file a complaint against WBZ TV 4 in Boston and against CBS/Viacom for the gross lewdness aired during the NFL Superbowl halftime show. Such lewdness is completely inappropriate for family viewing, notwithstanding no prior notice was given that such such lewdness would be forthcoming. No fine would be enough to guarantee such conduct would never happen again. I would suggest a license suspension of at least one week for the network and each television station under FCC jurisdiction would be more appropriate.

Thank You
